RESOLUTION NUMBER 50
HONORING DEANDRE HARRIS - BEY

WHEREAS, DeAndre Harris-Bey, affectionately known to many as “Brother Ahmed,” transitioned from this earthly life on May 29, 2026, leaving behind a profound legacy of service, transformation, and unwavering commitment to his family and community, dedicating his life to helping others discover hope, healing, and purpose; and

WHEREAS, DeAndre embodied resilience, redemption, and faith in action. With 29 years of recovery, he transformed his lived experiences into a powerful testimony that inspired countless individuals throughout St. Louis and beyond. His life became a beacon of hope for those overcoming addiction, incarceration, trauma, poverty, and systemic barriers; and

WHEREAS, as Founder of the Restorative Justice Movement, DeAndre devoted his life to creating pathways toward healing, accountability, and restoration. Through his vision and leadership, he worked tirelessly to strengthen individuals, families, and neighborhoods. He was instrumental in establishing and shaping organizations such as Youth Awareness and the Restorative Justice Movement, creating innovative resources dedicated to community healing, violence prevention, youth empowerment, and justice reform; and

WHEREAS, DeAndre was deeply committed to educating young people and helping them avoid the pitfalls of violence, substance abuse, and destructive decision-making. Throughout his life, he actively participated in violence prevention initiatives and community-based solutions designed to foster safety, accountability, and opportunity for future generations. His influence extended far beyond professional titles, as he served as a trusted mentor, advocate, teacher, and source of wisdom for countless individuals seeking a better path; and

WHEREAS, professionally, DeAndre served in numerous capacities throughout the behavioral health and recovery field. As a Certified Criminal Justice Professional and Co-Occurring Specialist, he worked with organizations including New Beginnings, Hopewell Clinic, Concordance Academy, Preferred Family Healthcare, Bridgeway Behavioral Health, St. Louis Metro Treatment Center, Gateway Free and Clean, and the St. Louis City Drug Court. His dedication to service also extended into food outreach efforts and support for unhoused populations throughout the community. Whether teaching about criminal thinking patterns, recovery, accountability, or personal responsibility, DeAndre believed every person deserved the opportunity to heal, grow, and reclaim their future; and

WHEREAS, beyond his professional accomplishments, DeAndre embraced life with joy, authenticity, and humor. Known affectionately as “Soul Brother the Comedian” and “DJ Draco on the Ones and Twos,” he brought laughter, music, and positive energy wherever he went. No matter the setting, DeAndre was “The Man,” a larger-than-life presence whose compassion, humor, wisdom, and unwavering love left a lasting impression on everyone he encountered; and

WHEREAS, above all else, DeAndre was a devoted family man. He cherished his role as a father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, great-uncle, mentor, and friend. His wisdom, guidance, humor, and unconditional love will continue to live on through the generations he helped nurture and inspire. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Brenda Harris-Norman; his daughters, Ella Felicia Fay Harris and Ashlynn Eden; his grandchildren, Christopher Bobo, Christinia Bobo, Shawn Jones, Shawntearria Jones, Deshawn Jones, Malik Taylor, Maliko Taylor, Malia Taylor, Shannon Strain, Derriyah Strain, Ryker Eden, Jasper Collins, and Harper Collins; his great-grandchild, Jamir Bobo; his siblings, nieces, nephews, extended family members, Amber Harris, Zina Coleman, Hassan White, and a host of relatives, friends, colleagues, community members, and all those whose lives were forever changed by his presence; and

WHEREAS, DeAndre Harris-Bey’s life was a ministry of restoration. He believed in repairing harm, rebuilding relationships, restoring hope, and creating opportunities for others to thrive. His legacy will continue through the countless lives he touched, the communities he strengthened, and the movements he helped build. Though his earthly journey has ended, the seeds he planted in the hearts of others will continue to flourish for generations to come.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to honor the life and legacy of Mr. DeAndre Harris-Bey. We direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and prepare a commemorative copy that it may be presented to the family at a time deemed appropriate by the sponsor.

WHEREAS, Pastor Dr. Shirley R. Page Woodley was born in Osceola, Arkansas and at a young age she relocated with her family to St. Louis, Missouri. St. Louis would remain her cherished home throughout her life. She attended St. Louis Public Schools and graduated from Vashon High School. Shirley possessed a remarkable thirst for knowledge, becoming an avid reader whose leadership abilities were recognized by her teachers as they entrusted her with roles of responsibility among her peers; and

WHEREAS, at the age of 21 Shirley accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, beginning a lifelong journey of faith and ministry that would span more than five decades. While attending St. Louis Bible Way Church, Pastor Dr. Patricia Whitelocke recognized the call of God upon Shirley's life, leading her from the pew to the pulpit and publicly affirming her ministry; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Shirley faithfully answered that call, was ordained into ministry, and graduated from The Shepherd's School under the leadership of Dr. Alfred Harvey, Dean of the Ministry Training Institute and instructor in the School of Ministry founded by the late Apostle Frederick K. C. Price of Crenshaw Christian Center. In 2025, United Graduate College and Seminary International honored her with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Humanities in recognition of her extraordinary service, leadership, resilience, innovation, and unwavering commitment to uplifting others; and

WHEREAS, as Founder and Senior Pastor of A Sure Foundation Christian Church, Pastor Shirley dedicated her life to building God's Kingdom and strengthening His people. Gifted with "the tongue of the learned," she faithfully delivered words of encouragement and hope to the weary. She also served as host of The Ministry of the Holy Spirit radio broadcast, extending her ministry beyond the church walls. Her servant's heart led her into countless areas of community outreach and volunteerism. She served as Executive Director of Volunteerism for Ferguson Global 1000, an organization dedicated to investing in humanity and urban development following the Ferguson unrest. Her passion for restoration was most evident through prison ministry. In 1997, she founded A Sure Foundation Christian Church Prison Ministry and devoted more than twenty-five years to serving incarcerated men and women throughout Missouri and Illinois. As a certified REJIS, 911, Police and Fire First Responder volunteer, she ministered faithfully in correctional facilities, believing every life deserved hope and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Shirley's prison ministry expanded to three Illinois Department of Corrections facilities, where she and her ministry team faithfully conducted religious services. Understanding the challenges of recidivism, Pastor Shirley designed two comprehensive reentry initiatives, Project Help-Mate and The Matthew 25:36 Project, dedicated to helping returning citizens rebuild their lives. Her tireless dedication earned her numerous honors, including being a two-time recipient of the Illinois Department of Corrections Volunteer of the Year Award and an invitation to the Illinois Executive Mansion for brunch with the Governor. She attended Congressional Pastoral Briefings in Washington, D.C., toured the United States Capitol, and received handwritten commendations from Missouri Governor Jay Nixon and United States Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist. The City of St. Louis Board of Aldermen also honored her with a distinguished resolution recognizing her exceptional contributions to the community; and

WHEREAS, beyond ministry, Pastor Shirley enjoyed an accomplished professional career. She became the first African American Crisis Communicator for the Municipality of St. Ann and served with the Crisis Communications First Response Team at McDonnell Douglas/Boeing while acting as liaison to the traffic control tower at St. Louis Lambert International Airport. She also served as a legal assistant and information manager with several distinguished St. Louis law firms, including Elbein & Goldberg, Brown & Crouppen, and Armstrong Teasdale, and assisted in closing judicial cases following Judge Ronnie White's appointment to the Missouri Court of Appeals. Her remarkable life was chronicled through the State Historical Society of Missouri's Women as Change Agents Oral History Project; and

WHEREAS, an entrepreneur, visionary, and author, Pastor Shirley founded Running With The Vision, helping aspiring creatives bring their dreams to life through media and entertainment. She also created and hosted the Title VII Podcast, #TheRightToSue, advocating for workplace equality and educating others about employment discrimination. Her entrepreneurial spirit extended into Christian entertainment through the successful launch of Hebrew Boys, providing wholesome faith-based recreation for the community; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Shirley was divinely connected in marriage to Elder Sylvester Woodley and their union became a beautiful testimony of God's plan as they faithfully served together until the Lord called her home. Her greatest joys were the accomplishments of her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, church family, and countless spiritual sons and daughters. She was truly a General in the Kingdom of God, a fearless leader who ordained ministers, trained leaders, preached to thousands, and faithfully led countless souls to Christ. Her wisdom and counsel were sought by apostles, bishops, pastors, evangelists, teachers, believers, and nonbelievers alike. Through her unwavering love, prophetic leadership, and steadfast faith, she laid "A Sure Foundation" that will continue to impact generations to come. Her life was a living testimony of faith, sacrifice, service, and unconditional love and her voice, vision, and legacy will continue to inspire all who were blessed to know her.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to honor and celebrate the life and legacy of Pastor Dr. Shirley R. Page Woodley. We direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and prepare a commemorative copy that it may be presented to the family by the sponsor.
